

Erfahrungsbericht Ala Haider

Hello,

My name is Ala Haider, an arabic student at the Faculty of Law at Haifa University-second degree. Recently I attended in Israeli-German-Palestinian Conference for Law Students in Wiesbaden.

I was very glad to attend this conference and this experience because:

1. I met new and special people from different cultures, different ideas, and changed with them ideas without harming each other.
2. I acquired during this conference new and interesting knowledge in different field such like: economics, separation of church and state, terrorism, etc... from the best professors who transferred the material in very interesting way including the workshop.
3. I and all my friends (Arab and Jewish students) were treated excellent by the German students and stuff; they respected us and listened to us extraordinarily.
4. I was very glad that the discussions were conducted in academic way and with respect.
5. I appreciate the judges, bank managers and lawyers who accompanied us, and invested their time in order to be with us-something admirable.
6. There is no doubt that this experience will follow me a more years ahead due to its special and the people who participated in it.

I hope that IDJV will continue to make such conferences in the future because of their importance and contribution.

I am grateful because IDJV gave me the opportunity to participate in this conference. and special thanks for Erika.

Sincerely,

Ala Haider
